

TOP FIVE GALLERIES

Rachel Campbell-Johnston

1 ART OF ITALY IN THE ROYAL COLLECTION

A spectacular collection of Old Masters from royal palaces and residences. The Queen's Gallery, Buckingham Palace, SW1 (www.royalcollection.org.uk 020-7839 1377), until Jan 20, 2008, £8, concs available

2 LIVING LOOKING MAKING

Sculptures by Giacometti, Fontana, Twombly and Serra structure. Gagosian Gallery, Britannia Street, WC1 (www.gagosian.com 020-7841 9960), until May 19

3 MATTER OF TIME

Meditations on ancient trees and rocks in thickly impastoed pigments by Dan Llywelyn. Roman Black Gallery, Fulham Road, SW6 (www.romanblackgallery.com 020-7731 3318), from Mon to Apr 13

4 IAN HAMILTON FINDLAY: THE SONNET IS A SEWING MACHINE FOR THE MONOSTITCH

The largest presentation of the artist's rarely seen neon works. Victoria Miro, Wharf Road, N1 (www.victoria-miro.com 020-7336 8109), until May 12, free

5 ANDREA GURSKY

Detailed photographs on an epic scale charting themes of globalised society at work. White Cube at Mason's Yard, SW1 (www.whitecube.com 020-7930 5373), until May 5, free

 For more art, timesonline.co.uk/theknowledge/art

TIMES NEWSPAPER MARCH '07